We asked the young lady across the way if her father's rheumatism was chronic, and she said she guessed it wasn't as serious as that, as he had it more or less all the time.

THE MARRIAGE RATE.

Usually the number of weddings is a fairly well fixed proportion, about as dependable as rainfall. Some discussion has been started by a notable falling off in the issue of licenses to marry in the city of New York. For June the figures were 13 per cent under last year.

The officials attribute it to war and war conditions. In Chicago there has been a falling off of about 15 per cent attributed to cool June weather. Boston also shows a decided decline, while Washington and Philadelphia show small gains.

The question how far the marriage rate is affected by social, economic, or other conditions is an interesting subject for the debating society. People of alien birth who have friends suffering misfortunes across the water, might feel less inclined to wedlock. An unusual period of stormy weather is said to affect business. It not merely keeps the public at home from shopping expeditions, but merchants do not feel as hopeful and confident. Possible prospective bridegrooms view the support of a family with less buoyancy.

Unquestionably periods of slow business do have an effect to delay weddings. Modern prudences has wandered some distance from the "Love is a cottage" idea. Indeed, if the average couple contemplating matrimony could see a cottage, they would feel better. "Love is a tenement" would express better the prospect.

A BLOUSE OF Dainty WHITE ORGANDY.

An excellent blouse in crisp white organdy finished with a hem-stitched collar and cuffs.

There is no denying the smartness of this blouse of crisp, white organdy, trimmed only with a hem-stitched collar and cuffs. The neck is cut slightly V-shaped, and dainty pearl buttons add to the trim effect of the model. The fashionable Quaker collar may be added if desired, in which case the sleeves should be lengthened to be finished with Quaker cuffs. In average size the Quaker collar and cuffs are made confronting many modern lovers. If young people have kept their troth for several years, and have not been able to accumulate a bank account and life insurance policy, there is commonly some fault or lack. Too frequently it is the unwillingness to start in a small way.

Other couples have found a better way. They have learned that where sentiment and romance exists, very little space is needed for strong ambitious young people. An apartment of a few rooms in a town's outskirts costs little, and a chicken yard and vegetable garden make savings possible.

PERSONAL MENTION.

The engagement of Miss Sarah Berman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Berman of 1048 Barnum avenue to Philip Dorkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Dorkin of 22 Williston street is announced. Both Miss Berman and Mr. Dorkin, who is connected with the Dorkin-Frank Co., of this city, have a host of friends who will be greatly pleased to learn of their engagement.

TODAY'S POEM

FIRST AID TO HAPPINESS.

(Pittsburgh Chronicle-Telegraph.)
Our wishes always seem to be
At variance with things that are;
None knows this half so well as he
Who through this life has traveled far.

It often seems to be our fate
To have the things at which we Fuss;
The things we scorn, the things we Hate,
Come always tagging after us!

Then, on the other hand, the things
That we desire to make our own
Are by the most outrageous flings
Of mocking fate far from us thrown.
No matter how we strain and strive,
No matter how we toil and fret,
No matter how our work we drive,
The things we want we cannot get!

More happiness we should possess
If in this world in which we live
We, who so tensely forward press
To grasp a joy that's fugitive,
Would straightway from our tablets strike
The things so far beyond our Sphere,
And set ourselves to learn to like
The things that are about us here.

WHY PEOPLE FALL IN LOVE

"All earth below, all heaven above,
In this calm hour filled with love:
All sights, all sounds, have throbbing hearts,
In which its blessed fountain starts."

It matters not whether the woman is single or married, her one greatest happiness is when she falls in love. Every woman loves to find one ideal who will bring her hope, joy and future happiness. It is the one rapturous study of her life. Her looking-forward time, and courage never fall in this particular object.

As for a man—just as soon as he can possibly see his way clear to wed and settle down, his quest and noble ambition is to find the one woman who is suitable and responsive to his heart with whom he can fall in love.

Experience has taught most of us that many meet and are pleasant companions, while the question is very nearly ready to be popped and yet they get no nearer with elusive Cupid. "There's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip" applies to falling out, partings and breakings-off, which are not easily forgotten, even with your relatives' consent. 5. If a girl cares to loan a youth her ring no one can forbid him to take it.

reserved boy appear devoted when engaged. I am engaged to be married to a boy 21 years old three months later. Will I be too young to marry? Is it proper for a boy to wear a girl's ring?

1. A boy should not stop and chat with a girl later than 9:30 at night, assuming that his visits are few and far between. 2. If others are going to evening parties a boy and girl can also go along together and return when others do. 3. No particular devotion should be shown after being engaged for love's sake. 4. Sixteen is quite young to get married, even with your relatives' consent. 5. If a girl cares to loan a youth her ring no one can forbid him to take it.

GIRLS TALK BOYS
ESCORT THEM

Dear Miss Libbey:—
I am a young girl with many girlfriends. When all together some one of them goes a little way off and talks to another. When on our way home one of them invariably tells me of what has been said. If it is concerning going any place, why, I about get invited. Ought I to refuse a boy who wants to see me home from a party and his brother is to go the same way?

C. P.
Girls often talk with no intention of teasing their mates. Try not to listen to talk home and you will be happy. It is proper to accept a boy as escort from a party, regardless of his brother going the same way.

CORNER FOR COOKS

Graham Nut Cake.
Sift together one and one-half cups of graham flour, one and one-half cups of bread flour, two teaspoonsful of baking powder and three-quarters teaspoonful of salt. Add one and one-half cups of sweet milk, one-half cup molasses, one-quarter pound of English nut meats, chopped fine. Mix well. Bake in a moderate oven one hour.

Potato Souffle.
Two cups of mashed potatoes, two cups of flour, two ounces of butter, one teaspoon of salt, two teaspoons of baking powder, sufficient milk to make a dough. Rub the butter into flour and potatoes, salt and baking powder; mix with the milk into a dough and roll out about half-inch thick. Cut into biscuits and bake in a quick oven for 15 minutes.

Stuffed Eggs.
Cut four hard-boiled eggs in halves crosswise, remove yolks, mash and add two tablespoons grated cheese, one teaspoon vinegar, one-fourth teaspoon mustard and salt and cayenne to taste. Then add enough melted butter to make the mixture the right consistency to shape. Make in balls the size of the original yolk and refill the whites.

Orange Blancmange.
Heat 1 cup of water with two-thirds cup of orange juice and one-third cup of lemon juice. Thicken with 8 tablespoons of cornstarch mixed with a little cold water, add one-third cup of sugar and 1-4 teaspoon of salt, cover and cook 20 minutes, stirring frequently. Remove from the fire, add the stiffly beaten whites of 3 eggs, beat thoroughly, turn into a wet mold and chill. Beat the yolks of the eggs, add 1-2 cups of sugar, a dash of salt and 1 pint of hot milk, cook until the spoon coats, remove from the fire, flavor with 2 tablespoons of vanilla and 1-2 teaspoon of lemon extract and serve as a sauce for the pudding.

Lime-water.
There are innumerable uses for lime-water, and no home should be without it. It is used to keep milk vessels wholesome, to make the milk digestible, to soften water, sweeten drains, etc. By beating lime-water well into olive oil or lard, it makes a salve for the most known remedies for burns and sores. To make lime-water, put a lump of quicklime as big as two fists into a clean earthen pitcher, pouring over enough fresh drinking water to cover six inches deep. Stir well with a wooden spoon, let stand half a day and then pour off the clear liquid without disturbing the lime at the bottom of the pitcher. Strain through doubled cheesecloth and then keep in small bottles tightly corked. When using, always pour off a little from the fresh bottle of one that has been opened. Thus one gets rid of the crust that forms.

JULY WEDDINGS

CALVIN-BASSETT.
Miss Mollie Bassett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. Bassett of 913 North avenue, and Mr. C. Virgil Calvin of Boston, Mass., will be united in marriage Thursday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at the Olivet Congregational church. The members of Miss Bassett's Sunday school class and a group of her girl friends are planning to decorate the church with flowers and greenery in honor of the occasion.

The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Henry Lettrel, a classmate of Mr. Calvin, and who is soon to take up his duties as a missionary in China. Rev. George O. Tamblin, pastor of the Olivet church, will assist with the service. Miss Harriet Bassett will be her sister's maid of honor and another classmate of the groom, John Wils, will be the best man. The principals of the wedding are all alumni of Allegheny college. The Episcopal service and the two ring ceremony will be used. During the services, Mrs. Henry Lettrel will preside at the organ and Mrs. Charles Shapiro will sing "O Promise Me" and "O Pensive Love."

The bride will wear a costume of white tulle and a tulle veil, which will be caught to the hair with orange blossoms. The maid of honor will wear pale blue crepe de chine and a pink cap that will harmonize with the rosette trimmings on her gown. A reception to the members of the two families and the bridal party will follow at the home of the bride's parents.

Miss Bassett is an exceptionally popular young woman who is well known through her position as teacher at the High school and her activities among the Camping Girls. She was graduated from the High school in 1905 and from Allegheny college in 1911. Mr. Calvin and his bride are planning to reside in Boston where the groom is studying for an M. D. degree at Harvard.
